Jacky is a good boy

Jacky is a good boy. He does his homework after school everyday. He likes to do his homework in the bedroom.

After doing his homework, he helps with the housework. He usually washes the dishes and sweeps the floor. He is happy to do the housework because he loves to help his mother. His mother needs to walk the dog everyday.

On Sunday, he goes to the church to visit the elderly. Jacky feels excited.

He helps to put the dishes in to the cabinet after he returns home. He carelessly breaks a bowl. He is shocked and scared.

Jacky's mother finds broken pieces on the floor after returning home. She isn't cross with Jacky and appreciate his work. She rewards Jacky with a cake. At last, they eat the cake happily together.
