

Write on alternate lines.

Serene (P.1)

I like going cycling. I go cycling once a week.

Yesterday ~~me and~~ my friend Daniel <sup>and 2</sup> planned to go cycling in Sha Tin. I was as happy as a <sup>simile</sup> lark. <sup>- Explain why you like cycling in this paragraph</sup>

We rented two <sup>sp.</sup> bicycles and two helmets <sup>sp.</sup> in the bicycle shop. Daniel was very good at <sup>(asked)</sup> cycling. I wanted him to teach me some tricks. <sup>(skills?)</sup>

<sup>- What did you see on the way? (on the bicycle lane)</sup>

We started cycling <sup>roads</sup> for a while. When we cycled happily, something happened suddenly. We saw a girl riding her <sup>sp.</sup> bicycle in front of us. She didn't <sup>(could not)</sup> see there were some rocks in front of her. We tried <sup>to stop</sup> calling her and warned her about the rocks, but she <sup>could not</sup> didn't hear us. She tripped over the rocks and lost her balance.

We immediately ran up to her and checked

( ) words

if she was okay, ~~but~~ unfortunately she wasn't.

We were very worried about the little girl. <sup>sp.</sup> The girl ~~she~~ said, 'I sprained my ankle. Moreover, my ~~other~~ leg is bleeding. Can you help me?' We helped the girl at once in the end. Daniel looked ~~after~~ <sup>her</sup> the little girl while I was in search of the girl's parents.

After a while I finally found them and I led them to their daughter. The parents were <sup>Adj.</sup> super grateful of us and they called the ambulance.

I learned we should help one another with <sup>(a)</sup> <sup>(sincere)</sup> an eager heart.

Write on alternate lines.

Samuel (P.1/D)

I like going cycling. I like it because <sup>(healthy)</sup> it is a great sport for my body. I ~~often~~ go cycling <sup>once</sup> a week. I have a friend, his name is Jack, I always go cycling with my friend. <sup>Deniel</sup>

(Refer to the instruction)

I went cycling with my friend <sup>Yesterday</sup>. We went to the bicycle shop. We rented two colourful bikes! A few seconds later, we zoomed off in high speed. We were as fast as jets. Suddenly, there was a girl riding a bike when she lost her balance and fell <sup>onto the ground</sup>. Her hands were bleeding. I was worried so I called 999 for help. They took her to see the doctor. <sup>Who?</sup>

In the end, the <sup>small letter</sup> doctor called her parents. The doctor told her parents that she was ok and just needed to stay home for five days. 'Thank you for helping me,' she said. I felt like a hero for helping that girl. After that, I learned to be careful when cycling. It was an unforgettable day. <sup>Good ending with a concluding remark.</sup>

Write on alternate lines.

Haylie (P.1/1)

I like going cycling. <sup>I like it</sup> <sup>SP:</sup> Because cycling is <sup>★ adj.</sup> a amazing and I can see the beautiful scenery while cycling too! I go cycling once a week on Saturdays.

Refer to the instructions.

Last Saturday, My best friend Daniel and I went to Sha Tin, <sup>today</sup> We both rented a bicycle. The bicycles look very cool. We put on our helmets and started cycling. We were over the moon. <sup>★ idioms</sup>

When we were cycling, we saw a girl. She was having fun cycling until she hit some rocks <sup>she</sup> lost her balance and fell off! She started to wail like a baby! <sup>★ simile</sup> She called for help. ★

At last, we stopped our bicycles <sup>pl.</sup> and ran to her. She asked, 'Can you help me call my mum? *sob*' We <sup>sp.</sup> replied, 'Yes, we can.' So she handed us her phone and we called her mum and told her about the incident. Her mum told us that she was coming. We tried to comfort her <sup>(the girl)</sup> for a long time, after she stopped crying, she said, 'Thank you for helping me.' Then we went to return our bikes and went home. We were as happy as a lark. <sup>★ why?</sup>

→ Did her mum come?
- What did she say to you & Daniel?

(151) words

A)

what

Name : Chelsia Leung (15)

rite on alternate lines.

Chelsia (P.1/1)

I like it because activities

I like going cycling.

~~because~~ I love ~~look at the outdoors.~~

I go cycling <sup>★ adv. phrase</sup> once a week. I was as happy as a bird. <sup>★ simile</sup>

Today, I went cycling at Tai Po with Daniel ~~take~~ It was

← a hot sunny <sup>★ adj.</sup> day. We rented two <sup>★ adj./colours</sup> gold and black bicycles
← at bicycle shop. We put on our helmets and started cycling.

We were over the moon. <sup>★ idiom</sup>

When we cycled <sup>★ adv.</sup> happily, something <sup>★ v.</sup> happened suddenly.

We

We saw a girl in front of us, she hit some rocks so she lost her balance. She was as sad as a poor cat. <sup>★ simile</sup>

In the end, we <sup>T/sp.</sup> took her to the hospital.

- How did she feel?

- How did you and Daniel feel?

Any dialogue? eg. 'Are you OK?' asked us.

(98) words

Write on alternate lines.

Leah (P.1)

I like it because

I like going cycling.

~~Because~~ I can do it outdoors, and I can see <sup>the</sup> wonderful <sup>scenery</sup> while happily cycling.

(However,)

But I only go cycling once a week because I'm <sup>always</sup> very busy.

So Today I met Daniel to go cycling. We rented with my friend two nice bicycles at the bicycle shop. we put on our helmets and started cycling. We were as happy as happy as a lark.

But When we were cycling joyfully, suddenly a girl in front of us tripped on a rock and lost her balance. Then she fell off her bicycle. She cried very loudly, I immediately got off my bicycle and said, "Are you okay? Do you need help?" She thanked us and said she was okay. her parents rushed here and thanked

(120) words

Leah (P. 2)

me for helping her, ~~then~~ They helped her <sup>(wrap)</sup> bandage her ~~wound~~.

In the end, We ~~happily~~ rode <sup>sp. happily</sup> bicycles <sub>our</sub> together.

Who?

(You, Daniel & the girl?)

-What lesson did you learn?

( 20 ) words

te on alternate lines.

Richard (P.1/1)

I like going cycling. I like going cycling because when I go cycling, I feel like a bird. I seldom go cycling, I go cycling once a week.

Sat Today was Saturday, I went to cycling with my friend

Daniel in Tai Po. We saw a beautiful scenery while cycling. We were over the moon.

We went cycling in the cycling line. Suddenly, a girl in front of us hit some rocks and lost her balance.

Unluckily, in the end, she fell on to the ground and started crying.

We asked her, 'Are you OK?' The girl replied, 'I am hurt.

Please find my dad!' We found her dad and he went to see her.

- What did her dad say to you & Daniel?

- How did her dad feel? - Where did they go?

What an unforgettable day!

(112) words

(A)

Name : Venus Cheng Nga Kiu (7)

Venus (P.1)

Write on alternate lines.

I like going cycling.

I like it

activities.

Because I like doing outdoor things.

also I like looking at the beautiful scenery while cycling.

I seldom go cycling. I feel exciting!

I went Sha Tin with Daniel today. It was a sunny day, we rented two cool bicycles at the bicycles shop. We put on our helmets, then we started to ride the bicycle. We rode as fast as a lion. We were over the moon.

When we cycled happily, something happened suddenly a little girl fell off the bicycle and started to cry. She cried very loudly. I asked her, "Do you need my help?"

She replied, "Yes, please! Please help me to call my parents, thanks!" I said, "No problem!"

( ) words

When her parents came, <sup>they</sup> ~~her parents~~ said,

Thank you very much! You are <sup>adj.</sup> ~~a~~ helpful boy! ~~What~~

<sup>Adj.</sup> ~~a~~ wonderful day! ~~I~~ learnt something new too, if someone needs help, we can help those people <sup>at once</sup>.

(146) words

Write on alternate lines.

Roman (P.1)

I like going cycling. I like it because I can ~~do~~<sup>it</sup> outdoors and see the beautiful scenery while cycling. I am
 'and see the beautiful scenery while' cycling. I am happy as a ~~lark~~<sup>simile</sup> and feel like a bird. I go cycling ~~once a week.~~
 I went cycling with my friend Daniel today. ~~It~~<sup>It</sup> was a sunny day. We rented two cool ~~at~~<sup>bicycles</sup> a bicycle shop. We put on our helmets and started cycling. We were over the moon.<sup>idiom</sup>
 When we cycled happily,<sup>adv.</sup> something happened suddenly. We saw ~~A~~<sup>a</sup> girl in front of us. She ~~hit~~<sup>hit</sup> some rocks and lost her ~~balance~~<sup>Sp.</sup>. She fell off her bicycle. She cried ~~doudly~~<sup>adv.</sup>. - Did she get hurt?

Write on alternate lines.

Coen (P.1)

I like going cycling. ~~Because~~ I can do exercise. <sup>Sp. when I go cycling</sup> I go cycling <sup>cycling once a week</sup> cycling once a week. My friend Daniel likes going cycling too.

I told him to meet me at the bicycle stand in Sha <sup>(shop)</sup>

Tin today. ~~Because~~ The weather was sunny.

<sup>there,</sup> When I arrived, I saw Daniel waiting. And I said, 'Sorry to keep you waiting.' He replied, 'It's okay, but <sup>58</sup> be early next time.' We rented the bike at the

<sup>(shop)</sup> stand, but not the helmets, because we already

<sup>Sp. (ours) first</sup> brought one. We <sup>Pl.</sup> put on the helmets, <sup>Pl. then we</sup> and got on the bikes and started cycling.

When I was cycling, I <sup>(rode)</sup> was as fast as a flash. <sup>Take good care!</sup>

It was so <sup>(1)</sup> windy. It felt so good! It was (182) words

There was a girl in front of us and delighted there were a couple of rocks in front of

she lost her balance because her bicycle hit the rocks. she fell and she felt her leg was bleeding and she cried.

We stopped cycling onto the ground. We shouted, Help, help! Luckily, a medic heard us and he helped her. He said to us, 'You guys did a great job, she was hurt and you helped her.'

We felt grateful and resumed our cycling.

(182) words

Write on alternate lines.

Ethan (P.1)

I like going cycling.

Because I can do it outdoors and see beautiful <sup>the</sup> scenery while cycling.

X
X
X <sup>T. (go)</sup> I <sup>seldom</sup> went cycling. I <sup>T. (go)</sup> went cycling once a week. I <sup>T.</sup> went cycling <sup>on</sup> every Saturdays.

Try to group these 3 sentences into one and simplify the meaning.

X
X
X go cycling. Hurray! I heard <sup>Then,</sup> a voice 'Ding dong!' I opened <sup>So,</sup> the door.

X
X
X It was my friend Daniel. He wanted to go cycling too!

X
X
X I went to Sha Tin with Daniel by ~~the~~ MTR. <sup>Then</sup>

X
X
X The train was slow...

X
X
X 'Opps!' I said. We <sup>T.</sup> fall asleep! We ran out <sup>of</sup> the train station quickly.

X
X
X We ran to a bicycles <sup>shop</sup> shop. We rented two bicycles coloured by green at the bicycles shop.

X
X
X After renting the bicycles, we put on our helmets and started cycling.

X
X
X The helmet was as hard as a rock. We were over ( ) words the moon.

X
X
X <sup>simile</sup> The helmet was as hard as a rock. We were over ( ) words the moon. <sup>idiom</sup>

why?
(relaxed?)

Emma (P. 2) (rode a bicycle
? in front of us.)
Sp.

The scenery is beautiful. Suddenly a girl pitch in.

x
Her name was Emma. All of a sudden, Emma trip over

x
a stone. She started crying. She cried loudly.

x
Daniel and I said, 'Are you ok?' The girl was strong and brave

x
She kept her chin up. We were as happy as a lark. Then

x
We started cycling together

(You all became friends?)

- what did you learn?
- Describe the day by ending with a concluding sentence.
(eg. What an unforgettable day!)

( ) words