Last Saturday, I went to Rainbow

School Fun Fair. There were some game stalls in the playground. Everyone was so excited.

I was very lucky to win a toy car at one of the game stalls.

Ivan, who was helping in the Fun

Fair, gave me the prize. 'Congratulations,

Jason!', said Ivan.

When I was playing the toy car, Andy came up to me. He took away my toy car suddenly. I was shocked and as angry as a bull.

I immediately told Mr. Poon

about what happened. Mr. Poon

asked Andy to copy the school rules

three hundred times as the punishment.

I guessed Andy won't do it again!

*Haha! Clear structure,
well-organised ideas.
Good use of similes, adverbs,
dialogues and phrasal verbs.!!*
