

Topic: Idioms (Group work)

Class: J.4 P.

Name: 19, 6, 13, 7

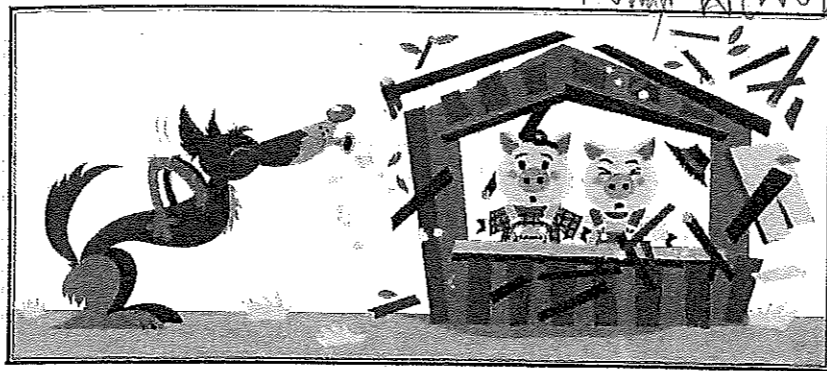

Read part of the story 'The Three Little Pigs' below. Add suitable idiom(s), interjection(s) and dialogue to appropriate places. Then check your work and practise reading with your group members.

The wolf followed. He was excited that he might get to eat two little pigs. Little pigs, let me come in! Or I'll blow your house down', he called.

He was on cloud nine

The two little pigs did not open the door.

Little Pigs

Now! He won't open the door, they full of beans, shouted.

The wolf blew the house down. The two little pigs raced to their brother's house of bricks.

The wolf was hot under the collar.

Topic: Idioms (Group work)

Class: J.4

Name: Ryan Hung, Yelow, Cathy, Jasper

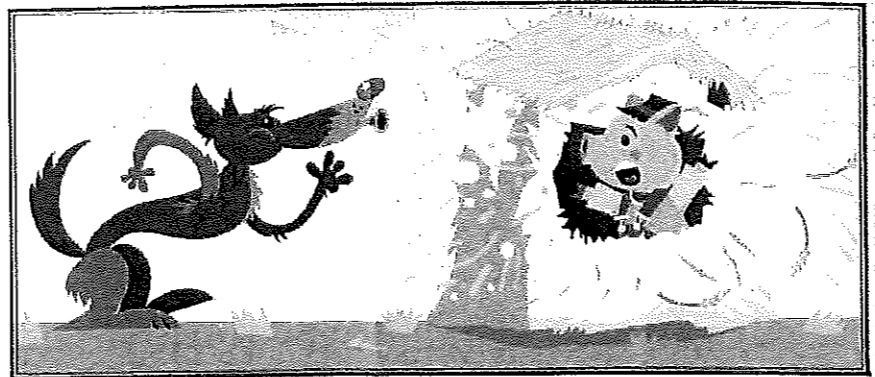

Read part of the story 'The Three Little Pigs' below. Add suitable idiom(s), interjection(s) and dialogue to appropriate places. Then check your work and practise reading with your group members.

Suddenly, the big bad wolf came to the first little pig's house.

He knocked on the door. 'little pig little pig let me come in,' called the wolf. The little pig ^{Ha!} said worriedly, 'Not by the hair of my shiny chin, go to your mommy.'

had butterflies in his stomach. And

So the wolf huffed and he blew the house down. The little pig escaped and ran to his brother's house of sticks.

Topic: Idioms (Group work)

Class: J.4 D (5)

Methodist School

Scene 5 (Set A)

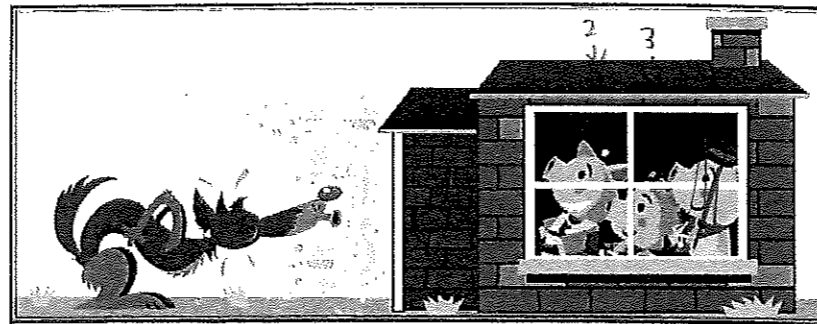

Pig 1.

Name: Lynn, Ellie, Alice, Marcus

Read part of the story 'The Three Little Pigs' below. Add suitable idiom(s), interjection(s) and dialogue to appropriate places. Then check your work and practise reading with your group members.

The wolf followed them and once he reached the house he began to shout, 'Little pigs, let me come in! Or I'll blow your house down!'

'Oh! Bye! We're gonna go to drink tea and eat lunch!', the ^{TWO} ~~three~~ little pigs shouted back.

The wolf huffed and he puffed but he could not blow the house down! The wolf was very hungry could eat a wolf and hot under the collar he was. He decided to climb down the chimney! He jump and jump and jump in + the chimney chin chin.

↓
to

Topic: Idioms (Group work)

Class: J.4 P

Name: 4, 21, 15, 12

Read part of the story 'The Three Little Pigs' below. Add suitable idiom(s), interjection(s) and dialogue to appropriate places. Then check your work and practise reading with your group members.

The three little pigs gathered materials for their houses. Then, the first little pig chose to build his house from straw, ^{of cake} the second little pig ^{straws and} chose sticks ^{Hey! I can build my house with sticks. It's stronger than the straw house and it's easy to build too.} and the third little pig chose bricks. ^{They were on cloud nine. I don't need to build for a long time.}

her house

Topic: Idioms (Group work)

Class: J.4 D

Name: ^{MADZ} Muse, Alison, Donald, Andy (17, 5, 18, 24)

Read part of the story 'The Three Little Pigs' below. Add suitable idiom(s), interjection(s) and dialogue to appropriate places. Then check your work and practise reading with your group members.

Once upon a time, three little pigs left their mother and their home in order to build their own houses. Mother Pig said, 'Omg! My annoying & stupid kids are finally leaving my home!' The pigs said happily, 'Yay! We can finally build our own house to live happily and avoid our annoying mother!' They were on top of the world. They were thinking how they should build their houses! Mother pig was on cloud nine. The mother said 'Sing I am finally'

mother badly! Then the mo

