Yesterday was my birthday.    Dad gave me a special edition robot.    ==What a surprise!    At that moment, I was so delighted.==

After that, Mum took out a birthday cake.    My parents and my sister sang me a birthday song.    I wished my sister would not fight with me anymore. Then I blew the candles.    When my sister was clapping hands, she knocked the robot off the table.

When I saw this, I was mad.    At the same time, my sister was so scared that she didn't know what she should do.

==In the end, Mum suggested, 'Ken, you can call your grandpa to fix the robot?'== Then Grandpa came to help me. The robot was fixed.    ==I was on cloud nine.==
