

Jing Yin (17)

At the Supermarket

Alice went to a big supermarket. She wanted to buy some food for her mum's birthday party.

She was choosing the food she wanted. Then, she bought three packets of potato chips, five packets of sweets, two packets of biscuits, a bottle of apple juice, nine cans of cola and a box of eggs. Next, she got a trolley and put all of the food into the trolley.

Later, she went to the cashier (to

words

pay for the food). Alice took the food out of the trolley, and gave them to the cashier. 'How much are they?' She asked. 'They're eighty-five dollars altogether.' The cashier answered. 'May I have a plastic bag, please?' Alice asked. 'Sure!' the cashier replied.

Just when Alice came out of the supermarket, the handle of the plastic bag ~~was~~ broke was broken

because the bag was too heavy. the bag was as heavy as lead

(a building) The eggs dropped onto the ground and they were all broken, ~~also~~ The cans of cola

They rolled on the ground
had ~~dropped onto the ground too~~. She was very upset. ✓
Alice

After a minute, Alice went back to into the supermarket again and bought the food she had dropped. This time, Alice asked the cashier for two plastic bags. At last,

Alice went home sadly.

or C could carry the things safely home.)
or home safely

42 minute (s)

204 words

At the Supermarket

It was Alice's friend's birthday. Alice went to the supermarket to buy some food for the birthday party. Alice

in the morning

wanted to buy two cans of cola, three packets of potato chips and a box of eggs. Alice put them all to the trolley.

the things

Alice went to the cashier to pay for them. She asked the cashier, "How much are they?" The cashier replied,

"Eighty-five dollars please. Do you want me to put them into your shopping bag?" She replied, "Sure!"

On the way back home, the handle of the bag broke because the things were too heavy. Alice shouted, 'Oh no.' She felt shocked.

All the food dropped onto the floor.

Alice called Mum ^{for help.} Mum quickly came. The eggs were broken and there was only one left. Alice was sad.

Mum said, 'We can buy ^{some} them again. Don't worry.' ~~They~~ ~~went to buy the eggs again.~~ In the afternoon, Alice and his friend had a happy birthday party. They were as happy as ^{last} time. Alice ^{learnt that} learnt she need ~~to~~ ^{bring one more} brought another

^{for shopping} bag. What a wonderful party! ^{good experience}

OR (a thicker eco bag)
strong

Eunice

At the Supermarket

Last Sunday, it was Alice's friend's birthday party. Alice was choosing (List out all the things in the picture.) (that) some snack⁴ and many other food at the party. After choosing, she put the food in the trolley. She was so excited for the party!

Next, Alice went to the counter. "How much are they?" Alice asked. "They're an eighty-five dollars," the staff replied. So, the staff put the food into the paper bag. Then Alice left the supermarket excitedly.

Suddenly, Alice's paper bag's handle broke! (So) all of the food fell onto

(the handle of the paper broke) the ground. The eggs in the box cracked, and the cans of cola rolled (were) away. She felt as embarrassed as an upside-down turtle.

embarrassed

embarrassed

words

→ // (Quickly) back quickly bought

Finally, she went to the supermarket quickly, and she bought the food she chose and got a shopping bag and went to the party. She learnt that she can't buy many things at one time. ~~she~~ she (or) hurried should not △ Study the picture carefully. Did she need to buy all the food again?

At the Supermarket

Alice went shopping because it was her friend's birthday party. She wanted to buy three packets of potato chips, two cans of cola and one box of eggs. Then Alice put the food into the trolley.

Alice went to the cashier and she asked, 'How much ^{is it} (are the things) ^{with the bag} altogether?' The cashier answered, 'It's eighty-five dollars, please.' She put all the things into the shopping bag. ^{for Alice}

^{Alice} When she went out ^{of} the supermarket, she

Unfortunately / Suddenly

✓ as happy as a bird. (but suddenly) the handle ^{of the bag} broke ✓ because it was ^{too} very heavy. All the food fell onto the floor. She felt embarrassed! She was ^{worried /} ^{as timid as a rabbit} (as worry as a rabbit) ✓

^{In} Alice (At) the end, she bought all the ^{food} again because the food dropped ^{on} the floor ✓

and got dirty

can't eat aready. She ~~will~~ learnt to be more careful. She must carry the things

✓ properly or prepare more ^{than} then two bags when she go^{es} to the supermarket. ✓

150 words

At the Supermarket

It was Christmas yesterday. Alice was buying some food for the Christmas party.

(chose)
She bought three packets of potato chips, two cans of cola and a box of egg^s. She put all the food in the trolley.

She went to the cashier (to pay). She asked, 'How much is it?' The cashier replied, 'It's eighty-five dollars.' Alice (paid) (gave her the money).

The cashier gave her a shopping bag to carry all the things..

✓

Alice carried the heavy shopping bag and went home. Suddenly one of the handle (was ~~broken~~ broken) All the things in the bag fell out. The eggs were cracked. She was upset.

Alice
She went back to the supermarket and ~~buy~~ ^{bought} all the food as quickly as she could.
Why? ✓ ☆

Then, she rushed home to decorate her house and got ready for the party. All her friends arrived. They had a party together. They were as happy as birds.

Did Alize learn anything from what happened today?

_____ words

arrived. They had a party together. They were as happy as birds.

Did Alice learn anything from what happened today?

At the Supermarket

Alice was at the supermarket yesterday. She chose some food for her mom's birthday party. She wanted to buy three packets of potato chips, two cans of cola and a box of eggs. Then she put them ~~into~~ⁱⁿ the trolley.

After choosing, she ~~talked to the~~^(that) ~~cashier~~^{went} ~~counter~~^{the cashier}. 'How much ~~(are they)~~^(are they)?' Alice asked. 'Eighty-five dollars, please,' the cashier answered. The cashier put the food into Alice's shopping bag.

Alice left the supermarket. Suddenly, the handle of the bag was broken because the food was too heavy. The food dropped onto the floor. Alice was upset. What happened to the eggs?

to help.

Luckily, a lady came. She gave Alice two big shopping bags, so she could take them to home. Alice carry all the things

Once Alice arrived home. Mom shouted, '...'
'I am as hungry as a bear!' Alice's mom shouted. 'Sorry, I am late. Happy Birthday, Mom!'

Alice said. Alice and her family celebrated the Mom's birthday party happily.

Great job!

Methodist School

Free Writing 3

Class: J.3 (A)

Name: Charis Chan Wan Ki (6)

At the Park

Today is a ^(★ adj) sunny day. Peter and his family go to Happy Park. Peter is playing the football on the grassland now. He feels ^(★ adj) happy.
Mum is packing their food and Peter's sister Rose is playing with her ^(★ adj) cute doll.
They prepare a lot of food for the picnic.
They bring two slices of sandwiches, two apples
and a bottle of water. ^(adv. ★) Suddenly, Peter kicks the ball and hits Rose's head.
Rose feels so ^(★ adj) painful and her doll drops on the food. Everything is ^(★ adj) messy.
Then Rose cries as ^{★ loud (simile)} loud as a horn. Peter feels ^(★ adj) sorry to Rose. Peter says, 'Sorry, Rose,

I should not kick the ^{ball} ball on you.'

[Mum let Rose calm down and says to ^(★ dialogue) Peter 'Peter, you need to be more ^(★ adj) careful next time.' Then mum says to Rose to

'^{Will} Can you forgive Peter?' 'Yes, I ^{will} can!'

says Rose. ^(★ connective) From now on Peter learns to be more careful.

Well done! You can write a clear story with adjectives, connective words and dialogues.

Great job!

(161) words

Great job!

Free Writing 3

Class: J.3 (A)

Name: Alison How

(13)

At the Park

Today the weather is sunny. Peter and his family are at Happy Park. Peter is playing football. ['The weather is nice.' Peter says happily.]

Mum and Rose are preparing a picnic.

They bring apples, sandwiches and a bottle of water. Suddenly, Peter kicks his ball at Rose's head. Rose feels painful. Peter feels upset.

Then Rose's doll and the food drop on the mat. Rose is crying. [Peter says, 'Sorry, Rose!

It won't happen again.']

Mum is angry and she thinks Peter is as naughty as a monkey. 'You can't play football for a week!' yells Mum. Peter feels

X ~~*~~ adj

X guilty and he promises he will never do it again.

X Well done! You can write a clear story with adjectives, adverbs, similes and dialogues.

X

X Great job!

X

X

X

X

X

X

X

X

X

(111) words

Great job!

Name: Kwan Yik Lam

(15)

At the Park

Today is a ^(★ adj.) sunny day. Peter is in Happy Park because he wants to play football. He feels ^(★ idiom) over the moon.

Peter's mum and his sister are having a picnic at the park. They bring sandwiches and apples. ^(★ adv.) Suddenly,

Peter kicks the ball to Rose's head. Rose feels ^{painful (adj.)} pain and Peter feels ^{scared (adj.)} scary.

Rose's food and the doll drop on the grass land.

Everything is ^(★ adj.) messy. Rose is crying ^(★ adv.) loudly. [Peter ^(★ dialogue)
^(★ adj.) feels bad and says "I am very ^(★ adj.) sorry!"]

Mum ^{★ Nice!} invites Peter give a hug for Rose. [She ^(★ dialogue) says, "You are an elder brother. You need to take care of your sister."] Then, [Peter says

(★ dialogue)

to his sister, Rose, I'm sorry. Can you play

x

football with me?'] At the end, Rose plays

x

★ adv.

happily with Peter.

x

x Well done! You can write a clear and warm story with many adjectives, adverbs and dialogues.

x

Great job!

x

x

x

x

x

x

x

x

() words

At the Park

One Sunday afternoon, the weather ^(★ adj) is sunny. Mum decides to go to Happy Park with Peter and his little sister, Rose.

When they get there, Mum gives Peter a football and he starts playing with the football. He feels ^(★ idiom) over the moon. At the same time,

Mum is preparing ^(★ adv.) for the picnic attentively and Rose is playing with her ^(★ adj) pretty doll ^(★ adv) happily. (sandwiches, apples, juice and water)

The wind blows ^(adv) gently, the environment is ^(★ adj) peaceful.

Peter keeps kicking the football and running ^(★ simile) as fast as a cheetah. A few minutes later, Peter ^(adv) [carelessly] kicks the football at Rose's head ^(★ adj) and she falls down. She feels painful. Peter feels ^(★ adj) scared ^(★ connective) because he is ^(★ adj) afraid that Rose will get hurt.

Rose's doll falls on the sandwiches and perish them.

Rose begins to cry sadly. Peter feels upset. When Mum hears Rose crying, she drops the food on the mat and checks whether Rose getting hurt. [Mum asks 'Why are you so careless, Peter?'] Peter feels sad. He says 'I am so sorry. Rose, can you forgive me?' 'Of course!' says Rose.]

After that, Peter, Rose and Mum buy three slices of pizza, a can of cola, two bottles of mango juice, a bottle of water and three oranges. They all have a lovely picnic.
 From that day on, Peter learn to be careful
 all the time.

Well done! I enjoy to read your writing. You can write a clear story with a lot of adjectives, dialogues, connectives and a simile. Great job!

(227) words

Free Writing 3
Class: J.3 (A)

Great job!

Name: Ethan Lo Chit Hin (20)

At the Park

Today is ^{★adj} hot and ^{★adj} sunny. Peter and his family are in Happy Park ^{★connective} because it is summer holiday.

Peter is playing football on the grassland. He is [★] over

The moon.

Mum is ^{★adj} preparing some [★] delicious food [★] and drinks.

They bring apples, sandwiches, orange juice...

Peter's sister is playing with her ^{★adj} favourite doll.

Then Peter kicks the ball very hard. 'Bang!'

The ball hits Rose ^{★adv.} unluckily. Rose feels [★] painful.

and Peter feels ^{★adj} upset and [★] anxious. Peter's tummy

[★] begins to [★] jump about like a frog

Rose's doll drops on the ^{★adj} messy food. She feels ^{★adj} sad.

Rose is crying loudly. ^{★ adv.} Peter feels upset

x He says, ^{★ dialogue} 'Sorry, I shouldn't kick the ball

x towards you. I should play football on the football
x field.'

x Mum throws Peter's football away and says

x ^{★ dialogue!} angrily, 'Don't make Rose cry again.' ^{★ dialogue!} 'Sorry, mum:

x I won't make Rose cry again. ^{★ connective} However, you throw my x football in the river. Would you get it for me, please?'

x Mum [★] frowns on Peter. Peter thinks mum is as x ^{★ a simile} angry as a tiger.

Well done! You can write a clear story with adjectives, adverbs, dialogues & connectives.
Great job!

(167) words

Great job!

At the Park

The weather is ^(★ adj) sunny. Peter is in Happy Park ^(★ connective) because he wants to play football. He is playing football ^{on} in the grassland. He feels very ^(★ adj) happy.

Mum is taking a bottle of water, Rose is playing with the doll. Mum and Rose bring a bottle of water, two apples and two sandwiches. Then, Peter kicks the ball ^{and it (hurts)} but the ball hits Rose. Rose feels ^(★ adj) sad and ^{painful} pain. Peter feels ^(★ adj) afraid.

Rose's doll is drops on the food. Rose is crying now. Peter feels ^(★ adj) ashamed. ^{He is (★ simile)} as scare as a mouse.

[Peter says, 'Sorry, Rose. Mum, I am so sorry ^(★ connective) because I hit Rose.]

(★ dialogue)
Mum says to Rose, 'Don't cry'. Mum says to Peter, 'You hit your sister. Don't do it again.' Peter learns a lesson that he must be careful. Rose learns to forgive others.

Well done! You can write a meaningful story with adjectives, connectives and dialogues.

() words